DATES

Closing date: Project submissions for Sunny Side of the Doc will be accepted until Thursday, December 5th, 2024, 12pm CET, at the regular registration fee rate. Shortlisted project holders will be notified by the Organizers by mid-January 2025, and their names will then be announced publicly.

Selected projects will be required to provide their pre-recorded video pitches by 19th February 2025.

APPLICANTS

Each applicant must provide up to date and accurate contact information when they submit their entry to enable Sunny Side of the Doc to contact them for further information or update on the status of the entry before or after the Closing Date.

If there is any dispute as to the identity of an applicant, the Organizers reserve the right, in their sole discretion, to determine the identity of the applicant.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Sunny Side of the Doc accepts projects from all over the world as long as they are submitted in English. Individuals or teams may apply.

Applicants must be 18 years old or over and be the rights holder of the work. Projects need to be recognized as factual documentary formats intended for broadcast and distribution. Entry is open to feature-length documentary films, one-offs, series, short-formats, new media narratives and multi-platform projects at development or production stages. There is a registration fee to be paid by the applicant prior to submission. Entry for each project must be submitted via LatAm Content Meeting's portal.

The Organizers will not be responsible for submissions not received for any reason. The Organizers reserve the right, at any time, to verify the validity of entrants (including an entrant's identity) and reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to disqualify any individual who the Organizers have reason to believe has breached any of these Terms and Conditions or engaged in any unlawful or other improper conduct calculated to interfere with the fair and proper conduct of the promotion.

Selected teams are required to be registered to LatAm Content Meeting to participate in its activities. Pitching teams may consist of two people (producer, director or author) and a financier trigger involved in the project (broadcaster, national or federal funding agency, institute, or Executive Producer, etc) may be present.

Selected teams in LatAm Content Meeting and Sunny Side of the Doc's pitching sessions will be required to provide a 5-minute pre-recorded video pitch (with trailer included), by 19 February 2025. Selected participants will be required to make themselves available for meetings with decision makers during LatAm Content Meeting, which may occur outside of regular business hours, including early mornings and evenings.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Copyright in each project entry submitted remains with the author/s of the entry. By submitting their projects to LatAm Content Meeting and Sunny Side of the Doc's pitching sessions, the applicant authorizes the Organizers to share the information with the selection committees.

Both LatAm Content Meeting and Sunny Side of the Doc might display basic project's information on media (printed, digital supports, radio and social media). On this purpose, applicant grant a non-exclusive, royalty free and perpetual right to use project's information. An exception may be made for security purposes. In this case, the applicants must indicate this choice in the application. The applicant acknowledges and agrees that this includes:

- Publication by Sunny Side of the Doc and LatAm Content Meeting (print and/or Digital)
- Press releases announcing shortlisted projects and winners.

By submitting a project to Sunny Side of the Doc, each applicant also consents to the Organizers using their name, image and/or voice in any media for an unlimited period without remuneration for the purpose of promoting the marketplace event.

NON-ACCEPTED ENTRIES

Project submissions received after the Closing Date and/or which are not in accordance with the entrant and entry requirements respectively will not be accepted.

OUTCOME

The Selection Committee's decisions will be final and no correspondence will be entered into in relation to their deliberations or decisions.

Entrants must direct any questions or comments in relation to Sunny Side of the Doc submissions to projects@sunnysideofthedoc.com.

Sunny Side of the Doc reserves the right to approve final audiovisual deliverables (pitches, trailers, slides, teasers) and can deny participation in the pitching sessions if these materials do not satisfy requirements including length of AV material.

WARRANTIES

By submitting a project to Sunny Side of the Doc, the producers warrant that they own all intellectual property rights in their submission, and that their submission: - is original, incomplete and unbroadcast non-fiction screen work;

- does not infringe the copyright or any other intellectual property rights of any other person;
- does not defame or invade the privacy rights of any third party;
- does not infringe any other legal rights, regulations or laws.

By submitting a project to Sunny Side of the Doc, the applicant agrees to be bound by the rules and terms and conditions as set out by the international marketplace event.

Sunny Side of the Doc shall use its best endeavours to treat all submissions confidentially.

However, the applicant acknowledges that the applicant's project may potentially receive wide exposure as a result of the submission process.

There is a chance that a number of ideas submitted as part of this call for projects – including the applicant's – may contain subject matter, themes, activity, characters and other material that is similar to other projects submitted to Sunny Side of the Doc. The applicant acknowledges that Sunny Side of the Doc is not liable in the event that the project submitted by the applicant is in any way similar to a project selected by the Selection Committee for the pitching sessions or otherwise now or in the future.

The applicant acknowledges that whilst every endeavour will be taken to match financiers with the applicant's project as part of pitchers' benefits, Sunny Side of the Doc and Latam Content Meeting do not guarantee that the project will be successful in attracting partnerships/financing.

Sunny Side of the Doc will follow up with selected works through its Projects Observatory. Applicants will have to comply with the organizers' requests for updates and information. Each selected project holder agrees to display a clear mention and/or Sunny Side of the Doc dedicated label on all promotional materials created before, during and after the marketplace event. The applicant agrees that if the applicant's project is selected for the pitching sessions and participation results in a business outcome, the applicant is obliged to acknowledge the support of Sunny Side of the Doc in the credits of the completed project and in all relevant promotional material.

AWARDS

All projects selected at LatAm Content Meeting will be entering the competition for awards, in cash and/or in kind endowed by our sponsors (list of awards to be confirmed) and decided by an independent jury. Please note that, from one edition to the next, awards and prizes may be renewed, added or cancelled at the discretion of the event's management and depending on sponsoring.

In the event of a cash prize awarded by our sponsors, the winners concerned will be given an official certificate by the Organizer stipulating the award obtained, the motivation of the Jury and confirming the transfer of the corresponding tax-free sum to the bank account of the award-winning production company.

LIABILITY

Except for any liability that cannot by law be excluded, Sunny Side of the Doc (including their respective employees and agents) are not responsible for and exclude all liability (including negligence) for any personal injury; or any loss or damage (including loss of opportunity); whether direct, indirect, special or consequential, arising in any way out of:

- any technical difficulties or equipment malfunction;

- any theft, unauthorised access or third-party interference;
- any submission that is late, lost, altered, damaged or misdirected (whether or not after their receipt by the Organizers) due to any reason beyond the control of the Organizers;
- any tax liability incurred by the winner or entrant.

DATA

Any information provided in relation to Sunny Side of the Doc that constitutes personal information under the Regulation (EU) 2016/679 ("General Data Protection Regulation" or "GDPR") and of the amended French law n °78-17 of 6 January 1978 relating to computing, files and freedoms, will be governed by Sunny Side of the Doc's Privacy Policy located on the website and these Terms and Conditions. All applicants agree to be bound by the Sunny Side of the Doc's Privacy Policy by submitting a project for consideration.
